

Jolanta Kutereba

EAL and LRC Lead (English as an Additional Language and Learning Resource Centre)

Jolanta has been teaching for over 30 years. She brings to LDE, experience in working with EAL and ESOL learners and a passion to help develop each individual's communication skills. She is ambitious for her learners and believes that an interdisciplinary, extracurricular approach to learning creates a more rounded individual.

Jolanta is the bilingual daughter of post war Polish immigrant parents. She was born in London and is educated to Master's level. She understands the language journey many learners take.

Originally qualified as a Dance teacher and having worked in some of London's leading Performance Arts schools, Jolanta has worked extensively in the community and now uses her experience of inclusivity in education to help learners achieve their deserved potential.

Jolanta continues to work in the community in SE London and runs her own successful dance company.
